

POLAM HALL SCHOOL

AIMS

Polam Hall School aims to provide the best possible education for all its pupils.

Academically we aim to

- Offer the highest available quality of teaching
- Encourage all pupils to discover their own abilities and develop them to their own individual potential by recognising individual strengths and supporting particular needs
- Inspire pupils to appreciate learning for its own sake
- Prepare them well for public examinations and help pupils make appropriate, well-informed choices for the future

Pastorally and socially we aim to

- Offer a safe, responsive community where self-confidence flourishes
- Create a climate in which the individual is valued, supported and feels known
- Develop the widest possible range of skills and achievement in sport, music, art, drama and as many extra-curricular activities as time and space permit
- Provide pupils with opportunities to show leadership and to take on responsibilities
- Develop inter-personal skills of communication, tolerance and care so that pupils can begin to understand the spiritual and emotional needs of themselves and others

Last reviewed: September 2009

Next Review: September 2010